

BIG EXPRESS DEAL IS ON THE TAPIS

HINT THAT RAILROADS MAY ABSORB THAT BUSINESS

J. P. Morgan and J. J. Hill Said to Favor Taking Over the Business and Conducting It in Connection with Other Interests—May Refuse to Renew Contracts.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Absolute control of the vast interests of the nation's express companies may fall into the hands of the railroad powers. Preliminary steps toward such an object are said to have been taken under the guidance of J. Pierpont Morgan, James J. Hill and others who are figuring prominently in the recently reported railway deals, and that the general scheme has been outlined.

The report has it that the powers intend to conduct the express business of the country as a regular department of railroad operation, strong provisions being made to have all roads act in harmony.

The currently quoted stock of the biggest express companies—the American, the Adams, the Wells-Fargo, the United States, the National, the Southern, the Pacific, the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific—is valued at considerably more than $100,000,000, the stock of the first four named alone having a market valuation of about $80,000,000.

May Refuse to Renew Contracts.

While nothing definite regarding the plans is obtainable, it is thought to be the intention of the railroad officials to refuse to renew contracts with the companies where the remaining life of the contracts is not long, and to make outright purchases of franchises where the contracts still have long lives before them.

The express companies have contracts ranging all the way from five to twenty years, and at the expiration of their legal agreements they are at the mercy of the railroad companies. James J. Hill is on record as having said that a railroad company should control every source of revenue within its jurisdiction. Unitedly, railroad officials say, the big systems of the land could carry on the express business as satisfactorily as the present companies are conducting it.

Have Immense Mileage.

The four biggest companies—the American, the Adams, the Wells-Fargo and the United States—operate over about 142,000 miles of track, the individual mileage being as follows: American, 40,642; Wells-Fargo, 40,798; Adams, 30,000; and the United States, 30,000. The other lines mileage is about the same as that of the big four. Most of the companies are controlled in New York. The Wells-Fargo, which is controlled in San Francisco being an exception.

HILL REFUSES TO SAY

Will Not Talk of the Prospective Great Northern—Northern Pacific—St. Paul Deal.

New York, Jan. 12.—J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern railway company, was shown a dispatch from the West today saying in effect that the lease of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road to the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific had gone through. Mr. Hill said that if the deal had been closed he had not been informed of it. He was asked if it were possible for it to go through without his knowledge and he said that he did not think so. Mr. Hill was asked if it were possible for it to go through without his knowledge, and he said that he did not think so. Mr. Hill was asked if there was any probability of the deal being consummated. His reply was indirect as he said that he and other railroad men are working in the direction of co-operation among the roads.

MR. CONGER WILL BE CALLED HOME

Washington, Jan. 12.—It is understood that Minister Conger's resignation as diplomatic representative of the United States at Peking has been decided upon. In order to spare the feelings of himself and friends immediate action will not be taken. The administration is displeased with several features in Conger's handling of the diplomatic negotiations in China, especially his mistake in signing on the part of the United States a joint note of the powers with the word irrevocable in it.

RECEIVED ORDERS TO SIGN THE JOINT NOTE

Peking, Jan. 12.—The Chinese peace commissioners have received word from the court to sign the joint peace note of the powers.

REVIVE IN GRAVE CLOTHES.

One in New York and Another in Indiana Escape.

New York, Jan. 12.—Miss Louise Schaefer of 140 East One Hundred and Twelfth street was to all appearances dead. The corpse was ordered for the door. Friends and relatives had been notified. Father and sister were making plans for the funeral. After a free use of nitroglycerin and digitalis Miss Schaefer's heart again began to beat, and again she sat up and gasped: "What do you mean?" "In all my experience," undertaker Faber said to-night, "I have never before seen any one whose appearance more convincingly indicated death."

Brazil, Ind., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Cyrus Clark, wife of a farmer of this county, came to life after having been pronounced dead by physicians. Her body was attired for burial and preparation was made for the funeral when she spoke. Intense excitement was caused among the mourners who crowded around her. Finally she opened her eyes and is now growing stronger. She was conscious some time before she spoke and realized that she was being prepared for burial.

THREE DIE TOGETHER

Dead Bodies of a Trio of Unknown Women Found in the Trent River in England.

Nottingham, Jan. 12.—A letter was found on the banks of the Trent today to the effect that three women had thrown themselves into the river because they had determined to commit suicide. The river was dragged and the three bodies were recovered. They were bound together and the women had their arms clasped around one another's necks. They were apparently 30, 17 and 15 years old respectively. The bodies have not been identified.

ALL NATIVES MAY VOTE

Cuban Constitutional Convention Endorses Universal Suffrage—Gomez's Friends Pleased.

Havana, Jan. 12.—The Cuban constitutional convention in secret session decided by a practically unanimous vote to insert in the draft constitution a clause providing for universal suffrage in the future republic. The friends of General Maximo Gomez who assert that he is the popular candidate for the presidency, are elated over the prospect of an unrestricted vote.

WORK IN CONGRESS FOR NEXT WEEK

Washington, Jan. 12.—The army reorganization bill will still claim attention in the senate next week, but the managers hope to secure a vote on its passage Tuesday. The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bills will then be taken up. The tentative program for the next week's proceedings in the house include the consideration of the river and harbor bill and Loud's bill to codify the postal laws.

SENATE EULOGIES OF LATE C. K. DAVIS

Washington, Jan. 12.—In the senate today, after the appointment of Perkins, as temporary chairman, a telegram was read from the California state senate praying for the passage by congress of a bill establishing a national quarantine station. The senate then proceeded to pay tribute to the memory of the late Cushman K. Davis of Minnesota. Mrs. Davis occupied a seat in the gallery while several hundred Minnesotans employed in the departments listened to the eulogies. Nelson made the first speech followed by Hoar, Morgan, Clark, Lodge, Daniels, Spooner, Pettigrew, McCumber, Foster and Towne.

Deer Killed in Vermont.

There were 111 deer killed in Vermont during the open season, which ended Nov. 1. Last year ninety were reported killed in the brief ten days' season allowed, and in 1898, when the open season extended throughout October, 130 were killed.

BEAT OUT BRAINS OF HER DAUGHTER

Minneapolis, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Louise Helstrom, living in a fashionable flat building this morning beat out the brains of her sixteen-year old daughter Alice with a bottle. The only explanation given was that: "Alice was too pure to live and so I killed her." The woman is insane. The girl was asleep when the woman entered the room at eight o'clock this morning. Later she appeared in the hallway of the building and told the other tenants what she had done and exhibited the bloody bottle. The room was a horrible spectacle. The girl evidently died instantly.

WHITEHEAD TO ACT AS BALANCE WHEEL

REASON HE IS ON PRIMARY ELECTION LAW COMMITTEE.

La Follette's Pet Measure Will Probably be Introduced First in the Assembly Where it Will Have an Easy Road to Travel—For an Independent Land Office.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—(Special.)—Interesting things will begin to happen in the Wisconsin legislature about as soon as the assembly committee are announced, which is expected to be at the session Tuesday night. One of the first important measures introduced will be the primary election law, the details of which are now being worked out. It will probably be introduced in the assembly, where it is expected to have an easier road to travel than in the upper house.

The first tilt over the matter of taxation of corporations will come on the proposition to change the make up of the senate committee on the assessment and collection of taxes, and to have joint sessions with the assembly committee. This proposition came up in the senate just before adjournment Thursday, in the form of a resolution by Senator Whitehead, chairman of the senate committee. It was opposed by "Long" Jones, leader of the stalwarts. Senator Roehr offered a compromise in the shape of an amendment providing that the joint sessions of the two committees shall be solely for the purpose of hearing arguments, and without action the matter went over to the next session.

Primary Law Will Go Through.

It is claimed now that there is to be little or no opposition to the primary election law even in the senate, where the stalwarts have shown a majority of one. In the formation of committees the senate committee on privileges and elections, which will have this bill in charge, according to stalwart leaders, was given a majority of what are called administration members, although "Long" Jones is one of its members. Senator Hatton is chairman. The other members are Senators Whitehead, Martin and Miller. The two latter are among Governor La Follette's warmest friends and Mr. Hatton is generally placed in the same class with "Long" Jones. Senator Whitehead is regarded as neutral and entirely fair minded and may be called the balance wheel of this important committee.

Another committee which will have important work to do will be the joint committee on apportionment, seven from the senate and thirteen from the assembly, which is yet to be appointed. It will have not only the apportionment of the state into senate and assembly districts in charge, but also the apportionment in congressional districts.

Independent Land Office.

Governor La Follette, in his message expressed his opposition to reducing the state land office department to a clerical status in the secretary of state's office, and argued that it should be maintained as an independent department, with the same limitations as to the number of employees as is provided in the law passed two years ago transforming the work to the office of the secretary of state. This bill went into force technically on the first of January, but no attention has been paid to it and the department is running along as of old. There is talk of a bill for a senate electric lighting plant, to be constructed and operated by the university engineering department, which will furnish light for several of the university buildings, the state capitol, the new historical library building and the state hospital for the insane, which is about four miles from the city across Lake Mendota.

HORTICULTURISTS MEET AT OSHKOSH

Annual Convention of the State Society Begins Monday—Poultry Show Also.

Oshkosh, Wis., Jan. 12.—The annual winter meeting of the state horticultural society will begin here on Monday and continue four days. The program includes papers on subjects which cover the entire range of the horticultural field, and will include the experience of the most noted specialists in the state.

The Algoma Horticultural society which will act as the host for the occasion, will make a good exhibit of flowers, fruits and vegetables, and special premiums will be offered. The State Poultry association will hold its annual exhibition of fancy poultry and pet stock at the same time, meeting at the Century rolling risk.

Street Car Strike Ended.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 12.—The street car strike, which has been in operation here for a week, ended today, the company agreeing to the men's demands.

REPORT ON STATE OIL INSPECTION

AMOUNT OF OIL HANDLED BY TANNER THE PAST YEAR.

Cost of Inspection to the Companies $27,103—State Supervisor Receives $5,432 and Deputies Get the Rest—No Known Violation of Law—The Annual Report Is Issued.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—State Supervisor of Oils Herbert B. Tanner has submitted his annual report which gives some figures that are of especial interest at his time because of the sweeping reforms that Gov. La Follette recommends in his message on that part of the state government.

The report shows that for the year ending Sept. 30, 1900, there were inspected in this state 271,036 barrels of oil against 285,038 in 1899. The oil companies paid ten cents a barrel for the inspection of which sum 8 cents a barrel went to the deputy inspector and two cents a barrel to the state inspector.

Surplus Is Divided.

The fees collected by Deputy Inspector Fred W. Kuth of Milwaukee for the year 1900 were $5,192.80, and in 1899 the fees ran up to $5,347.76. Under the law the Milwaukee inspector can only keep $2,500 of the fees while the sum over that amount must be turned over to the inspectors throughout the state. This year a surplus of $2,192.80 was distributed among the inspectors in the state after Kuth's salary and expenses had been taken out of his total fees. Last year he divided the sum of $2,344.84 with the inspectors of the state.

The total number of barrels inspected outside of the Milwaukee district was 218,190 barrels. The report says that during the year the number of deputies was increased from sixty-two to sixty-five and that some of the districts were slightly changed.

Fees of State Supervisors.

While the report does not state how much the inspector of oils received, figuring at two cents a barrel Dr. Tanner got $5,432 for his work.

In his message Gov. La Follette advises a complete revision of the law governing the inspection of oils and he believes that $1,500 a year would be enough salary for inspector and that all fees for inspection should be turned over to the state treasurer and he distribute a reasonable sum to the deputy collectors for their work.

WILL MEET IN DENVER

Railroads Continue to Make One Cent a Mile Rate for National Grand Army Encampment.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 12.—Notwithstanding the decision of the Grand Army to not hold its encampment at Denver, the Chicago & Northwestern has just issued notice to the effect that it will make a one-cent per mile rate to Denver in case that the encampment is held there. This action of the Northwestern is harmonious with that previously taken by the Union Pacific, Rock Island, and Burlington. It is now believed reconsideration will be given the subject of holding the encampment in Denver.

"DAD" FLYNN SET FREE

Two Men Released at Madison, But Fitzgerald Arrested Again and Taken to Waukesha.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 12.—"Lefty" Fitzgerald and "Dad" Flynn, who are well known to the police of the various cities, were released from the custody of the sheriff by Judge Donovan of the Municipal court yesterday afternoon, there not being sufficient evidence to hold them for trial on the charge of robbing the Deerfield bank last January.

They were brought here a short time ago from Milwaukee and were given their preliminary examination today. There was not sufficient evidence to justify holding them for trial and they were released. Fitzgerald was at once arrested by Under Sheriff Don McKay of Waukesha county on a charge of larceny. There was no warrant for Flynn and he went free.

GRIP HAS HOLD OF YALE

One Thousand Students at the New Haven University Are Sick with the Epidemic.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 12.—Five hundred new cases of grip were reported at Yale today. It is estimated there are more than 400 in the dormitories and that a hundred students who were seized with the epidemic at their homes during the Christmas holidays are unable to return. Half a dozen of the instructors are sick and have given up their courses temporarily. There are probably 12,000 cases of the disease in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zeuck of Milwaukee are visiting friends in this city.

WHY THE FISTS ARE USED.

Cadet Says Fourth-Class Men Would Fare Worse with Pistols.

West Point, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The congressional committee which has been investigating hazing of West Point cadets resumed its labors at 10 o'clock. Cadet George R. Spalding of Michigan, who acted as timekeeper at the Keller-Booz fight, was the first witness called, and after being sworn was examined by Congressman Wanger.

He said he was an ex-officio member of the "scrapping committee," being vice president of his class.

"Is that a standing committee?" "Yes, sir; but there is not as much use for it now as there was some time ago."

The testimony then reverted to the Booz-Keller fight, bringing out nothing new. Some of the congressmen wanted to know why the cadets did not settle "affairs of honor" with the army six-shooter, but witness said that he thought in that case the fourth-class men would be at a worse disadvantage than in a bare-knuckle contest.

SHUT OFF ALL ITS CONSTRUCTION WORK

Things Have Been Decidedly Upset in the Telephone Business of Late in State of Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Jan. 12.—The Wisconsin Telephone company has shut off entirely all its construction work on new lines in the state of Wisconsin. The men have been paid off and discharged. When work will be resumed is not known by the officers of the company in Milwaukee. In all about 200 men have been discharged in this state.

General Manager John D. McLeod said today that it was not unnatural that the company should decide to shut off work at this season of the year when frost and snow made such work difficult.

Things have been decidedly upset in the telephone business of late and Wisconsin is not the only state in which the Erie system operates in which all construction work has been suddenly abandoned and expenditures summarily cut down. The company has expended $1,500,000 in this state during the past year or so.

While the Milwaukee officials have no authority to say so, the reason for the new policy of retrenchment in the Erie system is due to the fact that the Bell people have again gained control and that the largest telephone interests of the country have gone into the hands of the original owners. The change of ownership of the Erie comes about from a failure to secure the loan of $7,500,000.

It is just possible that the change in control of the telephone company may mean an advance in telephone tolls as soon as the present contracts have expired.

JESSIE M'MILLIAN'S MARITAL TROUBLES

Former Oshkosh Girl Who Has Obtained Two Divorces, Is Made Defendant by Third Husband.

Oshkosh, Wis., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Peter L. Myers of Janesville, who is the defendant in a divorce case, was the adopted daughter of the late Robert McMillan of this city who bequeathed to her the interest of $25,000 as long as she lives. Her two children by her first marriage receive an equal sum and are to have half the principal when they reach the age of twenty-five years. Jessie McMillan married Clayton Quaw in 1886 and obtained a divorce in 1892 on the grounds of non-support.

She then married Guy Radford of Milwaukee and a year later got another divorce on the same grounds. She was married to Peter L. Myers in 1897. Her children are cared for by Mrs. McMillan.

REPORTS A SPLIT IN DEWET'S FORCE

Capetown, Jan. 12.—The British scouts report that there are no Boers about Kimberly and that the railroad line to the northwest is clear. A message from Masseru reports a split in Dewet's force, several subordinate commandants having decided to pursue independent hostilities. They are said to be tired of Dewet's policy of constantly moving.

PEASANTS OF SAROS IN OPEN REBELLION

Vienna, Jan. 12.—The peasants in Saros, Hungary, to the number of three thousand are in open rebellion against the enforcement of the conditions of serfdom in the district. The treatment of the people is described as outrageous, one of the offences of the officials being a demand of the peasant's daughters for concubines.

FRENCH IN QUEBEC TALK OF REVOLT

ENGLAND IS WARNED TO CEASE INSULTING THEM.

Says Patience Has a Limit—Montreal Paper Declares British Government Owes Its Holdings of Canada to the People of That Province—Says America Would Help.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 12.—La Verite, the principal ultramontane French-Canadian newspaper, today publishes the most threatening article that has yet been printed against English rule in Canada. It is in reply to a speech made by the Premier of Ontario in honor of Colonel Otter, commanding the first Canadian contingent to South Africa, which it considers an insult. La Verite then asserts that if England holds Canada today she has to thank the French-Canadians alone for it. The paper says: "It is to Quebec, and especially to our clergy, that England owes her presence on this continent. If in 1775 the French-Canadians had joined themselves to the American revolutionists, it is historically certain that the whole of Canada would have thrown off the yoke of England."

Says Patience Has a Limit.

Here is the climax of this remarkable article: "There is a limit to human patience. Mr. Ross says that England will always guard Quebec. Well, we tell him that she will guard Quebec just as long as the French-Canadians wish her to, and not an instant longer, and if the fanatics of Ontario and elsewhere were not blinded by passion they would comprehend it also. If the insults of which we have been made the constant object on the part of the English element of this country do not soon come to an end; if they continue to reward our loyalty towards the English throne by covering us with injuries and flooding us with threats, there will be an explosion of anger among the French-Canadians which will astonish those who are accustomed to regard us as 'good sheep.' The incident last winter in Montreal, provoked by the insolence of McGill, should make our insurers reflect. If the anti-French campaign does not soon stop there will be some fine morning a movement in which that which we have seen in Montreal will be multiplied by ten, by twenty, by one hundred."

Expect United States to Help.

"And what will be the inevitable result of a series of riots, of serious troubles between the French-Canadians and the English? The French-Canadians have only to make a sign to Uncle Sam, and in fifteen days an American army would occupy Quebec, Montreal, and Toronto. We certainly do not hope to see these things, but they will come if the campaign of insult does not cease. Again, we state once more that England will guard Canada just as long as the French-Canadians choose, and no longer. The day when we are pushed by these insults to the point of appealing to Uncle Sam, that day will end the power of these impotent jingoes to guard Canada for England."

ORGIES IN THE FACE OF DEATH

Certain Officers and Women On the Wrecked Steamer Russie in Revolting Revel.

Paris, Jan. 12.—The Echo de Paris says that a revolting orgie took place among certain officers and women on the wrecked steamer Russie when it appeared certain that all on board would be lost. Later the crew threatened to mutiny because of the method of distributing food. They were subdued by the display of revolvers. It is further stated that the passengers were compelled to object to favoritism shown by ship's officers to certain women.

MAY BE ROBERTS' BROTHER.

Allusion in Letter to Man Now Dead in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—The contents of a letter found among the effects of the late Abraham Roberts, who died Jan. 9 in a room on Howard street, has led the coroner to believe that the deceased man may have been a brother to Earl Roberts, the distinguished British general. The letter in question was written Nov. 2, 1894, by Harry Roberts, a brother of the deceased, who is an accountant employed by the First National Bank of Princeton, Ill. In the letter this passage occurs: "Our brother, Gen. Roberts, is now, I believe, in charge of the British forces in Ireland."

Abraham Roberts was 70 years of age at the time of his death. He was poor and had no relatives here. His body is still at the morgue.

C. C. Carr has been added to the force at the C. D. Stevens grocery. Mr. Carr is possessed of a host of friends both in Janesville and throughout the county.

LOSS TO GROWERS FROM SHED DAMAGE

Most Extensive Injury to Tobacco Since the 1882 Crop in That Respect—Prices Dull.

The buying of the new crop is receiving but little attention of late. Scattering sales are being made by a few dealers riding the growing districts, but the trading is attended by quiet methods and generally at prices shaded from the earlier sales. The bulk of recent purchases do not rise above the 7 cent mark for wrapper and binder grades while a little picking at the export grades at less figures is going on.

A moderate demand for old leaf continues though no large transactions are reported.

Tobacco is coming to the warehouses now in liberal quantities and the deliveries are keeping on hand full stocks of bundle goods for present needs. An occasional rejection is made by packers on account of damage, but more frequently a new agreement is made to permit the tobacco being handled over the sorting tables before complete settlement is made.

The case weather early in the week did not continue long enough to bring down the hanging leaf from the sheds.

The shipments out of storage reach 16 car loads, 800 cases, from this station to all points for the past week. Since last reports 14500s of cigar leaf were exported from New York.—Tobacco Reporter.

Tobacco growers are not likely to lose their heads over the results of one season's trial in raising pure Sumatra seed tobacco under cover. While the experiment conducted last summer by trained experts and specialists on one-third of an acre has resulted in a crop so fine that an enormous profit was made on it, yet growers will go slow before jumping into the method too hastily. In fact, New England Homestead has so far heard of but very few growers who will erect covering and raise pure Sumatra seed next summer. There is no doubt, however, that those tobacco growers who have the capital and the right kind of soil can make a good thing with a limited area of Sumatra tobacco under cover. Buyers of the Poquonock lot are reported to have said they would willingly pay $1 per pound for all they could get of as good quality as that secured last month. Only a limited area can be cared for by one man, under cover, and the cost is heavy. It is a fine instance of intensified farming. A comparatively small acreage under cover will probably net more profit than several acres in the open field.

—N. E. Homestead.

The packing of the new crop has proceeded far enough to determine that the loss to growers from shed damage is the most extensive of any season since the 1882 crop. The shed burn of that year was a serious damage, but never since then has any defect happened to the curing of the crop of much moment until last season. Stem rot has been comparatively an unknown damage in cases of Wisconsin leaf for a long time until this year, but the weather during the early portion of the curing season was particularly favorable to this injury and the crowding of sheds in the hurry and rush of a harvest helped along the damage. It is now quite generally conceded that the loss to the grower from all causes will range from 10 to 25 per cent. of the crop, while in exceptional cases the damage will far exceed that amount. Even after a good leaf has been thrown out by the grower at stripping, the warehouse rejections at the sorting tables run up well toward the figures above quoted. What shortage results from wet or high case leaf is most generally due to the carelessness of the grower, but the other deductions relate to causes over which the farmer had little control. It is so rare that Wisconsin growers have to submit to dockage at delivery time that the experience of the present crop seems hard to reconcile, and no doubt many feel that they have not been fairly treated in the settlements.

NOTES FROM THE CLUB WOMEN

Chicago women's clubs are arranging for a Chinese tea and a bazar given for the benefit of the public school art association of that city. It is to be held at the beautiful home of one of the members and though red and yellow invitations are flying about among the club-women a great deal of secrecy is maintained concerning it.

Mrs. Herman J. Hall is to speak at a symposium on the Paris Exposition given by the Nike Club of Chicago this week.

One of the Chicago clubs this week gives a table d'hôte dinner followed by a lecture, another a business meeting and a luncheon and a third and all-day session with a luncheon served at noon to its members. Surely Chicago is as energetic in its club methods as is everything else.

The Art Auxiliary are expecting to purchase a few new pictures and for that reason some of the Chicago dealers are to send a large number of photographs, etc., on approval. This will be an opportunity for those desiring to purchase. Mrs. Bosworth is arranging for an exhibition of these pictures to be open to the public for a small fee which will be given to the School Art auxiliary. Details of time and place will be known later. Some an exhibit comprising many expensive copies of noted paintings as well as cheaper ones will be well worth seeing and will be especially interesting to the Art class and the Art league as many of the pictures will pertain to their work.

The Young Ladies' auxiliary held their usual meeting on Friday.

When an exhibit is being talked of or a lecture is wanted the first thought is of the need of club rooms, to which all of the clubs could go in an emergency of that kind.

Something of the sort in connection with the public library is one of the pressing needs of the future. One of the philanthropic citizens of Rockford has built a beautiful music hall for the use of the musical clubs of that city as a memorial to his wife. Now it isn't necessary for anyone to die that Janesville may have a public library building with club rooms state this year is found in the unreasonable demands made by the farmer on delivering his crop. He knows, as does the buyer, that for many years Wisconsin has had no crop which required the precaution this one has. Where the tobacco escaped the storms damage has come in by way of pole rot, shed burn and rust. There is no way to find this loss, justly, save through the assenting table. Growers cannot keep it out when stripping, and they know it, yet they make the demand on the buyer, that, having contracted for the crop, he must take it, all damaged included, at the contract price. Right is right for all, and why this unjust claim? At Edgerton and other packing points, farmers realizing the fact that their crop is not in the merchantable condition called for in their contract, are signing other contracts, authorizing the firm they sold to, to assort the crop, paying per pound for the labor of handling all damaged tobacco takes out in such assorting. The damaged being returned to the grower. The seller accepts part of the agreed purchase price at the time

Man? Several Definitions Of What He Is

From the days of Adam down to Henry Ward Beecher man has been making learned attempts to write a good short definition of himself. So far he has failed. The great preacher said that man is a tool using animal. It was pointed out that other animals used tools with much ingenuity, and this definition failed because it was not exclusive enough to be definite.

It was observed that man is a worshiper by nature, and since then many a printing press has found occupation flinging forth matter to explain or deny the statement. Presently some genius remarked that man is the only animal that makes slaves. Then it was discovered that ants not only have slaves but soldiers. And as if fate had not made a sufficient laughing stock of the human biped she had this fact discovered by a man that was stone blind—Huber, who used the eyes of a woman to teach scientists of the present day a good deal of what they know about the habits of bees and ants. And thus the learned individual found himself "up a stump."

Now another definition has been found: "Man is the only animal that uses one animal to make a slave or victim of another." To this frivolous person suggested: "How about the monkey that used the cat's paw attached, for a memorial to a living person would be quite as acceptable and appropriate.

The Order Eastern Star Study class met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sanborn. In the absence of the president Mrs. Merritt presided. The surrender of the British was spoken of by Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Sanborn gave a paper on a back number topic of the treaty of Paris in 1783. Mrs. Ashcraft gave a paper on first territorial counties of Wisconsin. Mrs. Carle prepared a paper on early settlements of Green Bay, Prairie du Chien, Portage and Milwaukee and it was read by Mrs. McNamara.

Miss Chittenden's paper was postponed until next meeting and after an animated discussion the club accepted the invitation to meet with Mrs. Irene Strickler for the next session.

The Art League met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Ashcraft and as it was a general meeting Mrs. Tanberg presided with Mrs. Edden as secretary. The Park Improvement society and their convention in Milwaukee was discussed also a lecture by Madame Freidland and committees for library work were appointed. On the regular program Mrs. Thompson gave a thoughtful paper on Michael Angelo as man and poet.

His power of mind and hand secured him consideration from his associates in spite of his rugged face and manners.

He made his sonnets and poems with the same fierce energy with which he attacked the marble.

Mrs. Tarrant spoke of Angelo as a sculptor who was only happy with a chisel in his hand. His romantic life at the home of Lorenzo the Magificent helped to shape his life. His four great figures of night, dawn, day and twilight embody the despair of Florence.

Mrs. Tanberg treated of Angelo as a painter, one of the great souls of the world battling always for his ideal. The vault of the Sistine chapel contains over two hundred figures of gigantic size, all of his work.

Mrs. Sweeney gave a paper on Angelo as an architect, this was the work of his later years especially in connection with the church of St. Peters. It is so colossal that the smallest model always appears as imposing.

of delivery and the balance to be paid after the crop has been assorted. The farmer having the privilege of being at the warehouse while his crop is going over the tables, that he may see what is thrown out. All fair minded men must see the impossibility of delivering otherwise, where the damage is so extensive. This is not a one-sided affair, but equal alike to buyer and seller.—Sun Prairie Sun.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Oshkosh—Henry Schlegel, aged 5 years, died of diphtheria. He had returned from school but a few hours before his death. No contagious disease card was posted at the residence and the other children of the family were not sent from school until the death occurred.

Kenosha—Judge Clarkson, a well-known Christian Scientist, while still a believer in the faith, has withdrawn from the other church of the Scientists because he does not believe in the efficacy of the methods employed.

Stevens Point—Mrs. Erdman Reichert dreamed that her infant child was dead and that she saw it in a coffin that was being lowered into a grave. She awoke frightened and soon after the child she dreamed about died in convulsions.

Menominee, Mich.—A series of grade crossing accidents in this city has resulted in a demand that the Northwestern and St. Paul railroads place gates or flagmen at each of the dangerous crossings.

Wausau—An unknown man was killed by a Northwestern train. In his pockets were found newspaper clippings, each of which told the story of a suicide.

Oshkosh—The county board of Winnebago county passed a resolution memorializing the legislature to pass an inheritance tax measure similar to the one now operative in Illinois.

Appleton—Eighty of the employees of the paper mills at Kimberly have organized a benefit association to insure against loss by sickness.

Green Bay—Mrs. M. J. Whitney is on the way to South Africa to join her husband, who is a British soldier. She proceeds via Liverpool.

Madison—Former President Harrison has been invited to deliver the annual address at the law school exercises next June.

La Crosse—The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Spiritual association will be held here next month. The association was formed at Stevens Point a year ago.

Menominee, Mich.—Charles Bernard, the land hunter, who was supposed to have died in a Chicago hotel, returned home hale and hearty.

New Circuit Court Rules

Judge Dunwiddie has adopted a new set of rules for the government of cases in the 12th judicial circuit. They are practically the same as the rules now in force with one or two exceptions. Hereafter cases for trial in this court will be tried in the following order:

Issues of fact for trial by jury. Criminal cases.

Issues of fact for trial by the court. Issues of law.

The rule governing the payment of attorneys when they are appointed by the court to defend indigent prisoners will be $15 per day, but only for time actually employed in the trial or proceeding.

It is safe to say that Middleton, Verona and Cross Plains, Wis., have lost $50,000 by hog cholera within the past year.

Scrofula

This root of many evils—

Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it easily, paleness, nervousness and other ailments including the consumptive tendency—Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Elias Vernoy, Wausau, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS OF A TEACHER IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Sarcastic Paper Read at a Recent Teachers' Institute by Mr. S. B. Todd.

At a recent teachers' institute the following paper on "Treatment of the Teacher in the Public Schools," was read by S. B. Todd:

She must know more, do more, be more, and suffer more than any other bread winner. She must know everything in heaven above, the earth beneath, and the waters under the earth. She receives no special credit for knowing them, but woe to her if she knows them not.

She must teach physiology with all the skill of a physician, but without his opportunity of hiding mistakes.

She must teach civics with all the learning of a lawyer, but without his library.

She must teach virtue and Godliness with all the zeal of the minister, but without his bible or his sectarian bias.

Under the title of "Nature Lessons," she must teach the elements of all science known to man, but, unlike her sister in the high school, she must do it without a text book.

She must teach music, drawing, penmanship and physical culture with the ability of a specialist, but must give the supervisor credit for success attained.

She must give direct instruction in morals and manners or the school will go to the demerit bow-wow.

She must teach the effect of alcohol and narcotics on the women of the W. C. T. U. will have corruption fits.

She must spend from eight to ten hours a day in the unwholesome atmosphere of a poorly ventilated school-room and one or two hours more in selecting material and copying it on the board to be again copied by the children, thus exhausting her vitality and ruining the eyesight and penmanship of her pupils to please the fool fancy of some sap-headed superintendent who thinks he is carrying out an original scheme.

She must carry out silly experiments of young and callow principals who are learning the business empirically, and with whom she dare not differ.

She must govern wild and wicked children even when parents fail. She must be as wise as Solomon, patient as Job, strong and enduring as Caesar, and tender as Maecenas.

She must be more even tempered than the Almighty for the Almighty was "wroth with the wicked" when He punished them, but alas for the teacher who loses her temper! She must be a model of propriety in all things, for are not the eyes of the whole community upon her? She must know the usages of the world and of society, but must stand aloof from both.

She must have humility, confidence, infinite tact, perfect health, common sense in abundance, a modicum of wit, a world of wisdom and a little wickedness. She must endure the foul air, the nerve-racking confusion, and the thousand annoyances of the schoolroom. She must submit to the thoughtless criticisms of the ignorant, the unjust abuse of disappointed parents, the bandishment of those who would help their children by patronizing attentions to the teacher, and the domineering dictation of aspiring politicians.

She must spend hours upon hours making reports, compiling statistics, striking balances and averages, and tabulating foolish answers to silly questions with the ma chine-like exactness of a trained accountant to make more formidable and less readable the superintendent's report and impress a confiding and gullible public with the complicated machinery necessary to a system of public schools.

And for all this she receives a salary which enables her to live in poverty or on the charity of her friends if she falls ill, offends the powers that be, or loses her pull.

I knock on the pupil who annoys her, on the superintendent who overworks her, on the parent who ignorantly criticizes her, on the paragrapher who satirizes her, on the alleged funny man who makes sport of her, on the school board that underpays her, and on the thousands of single fools who do not marry her.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Janesville.

Because it's evidence in Janesville. It's from a citizen, perhaps a neighbor. Investigation will confirm it.

Mr. E. Dillenbeck, of 126 Milton Ave retired farmer, says: "My wife was troubled with kidney complaint for four or five years, and complained of pains in the small of the back in the region of the kidneys. The symptoms all indicated that the kidneys were deranged, and the doctors who treated her said that those organs caused the trouble. As she did not get any better we thought Doan's Kidney Pills might give her relief, and procuring them at the Peoples drug store, I had her use the remedy. It did for her all that could be expected. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and you can use our names as saying what has been stated above."

For sale by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buff. lo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

BLOW UP TWO BRIDGES.

Farmers Wreak Vengeance Against the Chicago & Southeastern Railroad.
Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 12.—Two bridges on the Chicago & Southeastern railroad, one sixty feet long and twenty feet high, were dynamited and destroyed by farmers last night. The company's roadbed across Wesley Grantham's farm has been leveled with plows, and numerous wagonloads of its rails have been removed, carted three miles from the right of way and are now piled up behind a schoolhouse. Traffic on the road is entirely suspended, and cannot be resumed for at least a week—the length of time it will require to condemn a right of way across the farm and repair the damage that has been done. The mail trains fare no better than others, and as a consequence there has been serious delay in the delivery of mail. Last night a mail train backed up to the break in the tracks, and the messenger attempted to cross the Grantham farm with the mailbags on his arms. He was stopped by an armed and determined body of men, guns were shoved into his face and he was forced to beat a hasty retreat. This morning a gang of section men appeared at the farm and began to make preparations to relay the tracks. The "Grantham guards" marched on them in military formation and the leader announced in decisive terms that any attempt at work would be the signal to open fire. The threatening attitude of the "guards" spread consternation among the workmen, and they lost no time in getting out of harm's way. The vicinity of the Grantham farm is practically under mob rule, and the position of the farmers has the support of the sheriff, although, of course, he does not sanction the destruction of the bridges.

SEEK TO LEAVE SERVICE.

Soldiers Alleged to Commit Offenses That Discharge May Follow.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Special orders emanating from the department of Cuba contain the records of twenty-two courts-martial of privates charged with drunkenness, absence without leave, forging passes and other offenses "to the prejudice of good order and military discipline." Gen. Wood recently called attention to the increasing number of misdemeanors of this sort, and stated as his belief that the enlisted men were taking advantage of the article providing for a dishonorable discharge after "five previous convictions by summary court within a year" to get out of the service. Out of the twenty-two cases above referred to only six was the sentence of dishonorable discharge approved. In three of the others the prisoners were sentenced by the court to dishonorable discharge, but these sentences were disapproved by the department commander and mitigated to forfeiture of pay and confinement at hard labor.

Crooks Reported in a Trust.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—It may afford some measure of comfort to the stranger who misses his wallet and return railroad ticket to know that he was a victim of a reported trust. Confidence men, it is said on good authority, have organized a trust and by systematic methods are not only reaping a harvest, but are practically immune from interference by the police.

No Attempt to Kill Wales.

London, Jan. 12.—The basis of a report of an attempted assassination of the prince of Wales turns out to be that a harmless foreign musician followed the prince when he was returning from shooting on the duke of Devonshire's estate. The stranger ran from shooting on the duke of Devonshire's estate. The stranger ran from shooting on the duke of Devonshire's estate. The stranger ran from shooting on the duke of Devonshire's estate.

Letter Makes a Coal Deal.

Carbondale, Ill., Jan. 12.—Joseph Leiter, the Chicago wheat plunger, has just entered into an arrangement to handle 2,000 tons of coal from the new fields just opened at Herrin for the purpose of running 500 coke ovens. The deal is one of the largest ever made in the Southern Illinois coal fields. Leiter has been negotiating the deal several months.

Blaze in E. A. Cudahy's House.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 12.—Alarming stories to the effect that kidnapers had tried to burn E. A. Cudahy's mansion were circulated last night as the result of a small blaze in the basement of the building. Mr. Cudahy denies himself to all callers, but the fire department reports "spontaneous combustion" as the cause of the fifteen-minute fire.

Ten Trains Snow-Bound.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 12.—Dispatches from Sebastopol depict the sufferings of 3,000 snow-bound passengers on ten trains throughout the southwest as being extreme. One train was inaccessible for a whole week, and others for two and three days. The passengers were largely school children and people going home for the holidays.

Gen. Prosperino Pinzon Dead.

New York, Jan. 12.—A cable dispatch from Bogota, announces the death of Gen. Prosperino Pinzon, at Bogota, capital of Colombia. The cause of death is not mentioned. Gen. Pinzon was born in the state of Boyaca, forty-five years ago. He was at one time governor of Boyaca.

Did Not Find the Treasure.

Middletown, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Charles Belling, who recently accompanied Wilson Wright to San Francisco to search for $190,000 of buried treasure on the advice of a clairvoyant, has returned to his home near this city. Wright did not find any treasure.

Would Lock Up Silver Coin.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage startled the house committee on coinage, weights and measures by the statement: "If silver could be locked up completely without disturbing the markets of the world, I think it would be the most honest way to dispose of it."

The question before the committee was a proposition to practically stop all silver coinage except subsidiary coins. Secretary Gage said the government must show faith in silver, by making it interchangeable with gold at the treasury before the people could show like courage.

One More Orphan Dies.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Hyman Saperstone, aged 4 years, is dead, making the thirty-first victim of the orphan asylum fire of Tuesday morning. The child's lungs were so affected by the inhalation of smoke that a severe case of pneumonia resulted, and death relieved the sufferer. Of the remaining injured victims of the fire all, it is thought, will recover.

Hanna Denies a Report.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Senator Hanna flatly denies the report that he remarked to Senator Clay of Georgia that there would be an extra session of congress if the ship subsidy bill is not voted on before March 4. He asserted positively that he expected that the senate would vote on the bill before the session ends.

HUMAN SYMPATHY.

There are many qualities of mind and heart that are helpful to humanity and a blessing to the possessor. Faith, courage, hope, ambition, loyalty and a long list of graces that contribute to well developed character. In all the list there is none more helpful to both the possessor and receiver than sympathy. Not of the sort that simply says, "I'm sorry for you." I wish I could do something for you." That is the kind of sympathy that the priest and Levite possessed when they found the wounded man on the Jericho road so many years ago. But the warm-hearted, God-like type, that says little and does much.

In this world so full of trouble and disappointment, where almost every home has its skeleton, there is room for large-hearted, genuine sympathy. This want is frequently noticed in the home, where the tired wife and mother, worn out with a day of work and worry, longs in vain for a word or look, or some little deed of appreciation. It is possible to become so familiar with the people close about us, as to almost forget their presence, and to entirely ignore the little courtesies extended to the ordinary acquaintance. There are too many homes where these conditions exist. It is easy and natural to raise your hat, and say "Good morning" in a cheery voice to a friend, and it is just as easy and about as natural to enter the home in the evening and say to the wife, who is closer than any friend, "Why ain't supper ready?" in a tone that chills and hurts. It is easy for the boy or girl to go into any home but their own, and be wonderfully polite and thoughtful, and just as easy to rush into the home where the mother presides, with thought and care thrown to the winds.

Many people like to quote that old truism, "Love never grows old," forgetting that it sometimes grows wonderfully thoughtless and careless. If there is any place where human sympathy should abound it is in the home. If there is any place where it should be cultivated, it is in the family circle, but it should never stop there.

Have you ever devoted a day to the expression of sympathy? If not, try it and make a note of the results. You will be surprised. Start out in the morning by putting your arm around your wife and giving her an old-fashioned kiss. You may not have done such a thing in a dozen years, unless it was in company somewhere—some people advertise their devotion in that way. She will blush as she used to when the roses were on her cheeks in the happy days of courtship, but her heart will warm with a glow that will send her about the house all day singing, and just because you said, without speaking a word, "The old love is not dead, nor the old gallantry forgotten."

Say "Hello" to every child you meet of the street, and catch the pleasant smile and merry twinkle in the eye, as they respond with a cheerful greeting. Have a pleasant word for the people about you and note the atmosphere that surrounds you, and you will be convinced that a change of climate is not necessary to long life and happiness. When you go home at night the wife will do the greeting, and you will find her dressed up as if she expected company, and you look at her twice to discover how young and handsome she has grown since morning. You find her good company is the evening and wonder how you could have drifted so far apart while living together. There's nothing strange about it, just a little lack of sympathy and appreciation. The only trouble is that too many lives never come to themselves until it is too late.

Some one has said that "words are cheap and frequently meaningless." It is very true and yet there are times when a word of sympathy and a warm grasp of the hand are very helpful. A letter to a friend in times of sorrow has brought comfort to many hearts. The Master was "touched with the feeling of our infirmities," and the spirit of the Master is in touch with suffering everywhere. What the world needs today is a bond of human sympathy so pronounced that expression in every practical way will be natural and spontaneous.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Governor La Follette's message will be recognized as one of the most comprehensive state papers that was ever issued from the office of the chief executive. It also bears the stamp of sincerity and honest conviction. It contains many suggestions and recommendations, that are worthy of thoughtful consideration.

The question of taxation is discussed in detail, furnishing much useful information, and expressing an earnest desire to have all classes of properties share their legitimate proportion of tax burdens.

The reforms suggested in the executive department with a view to more economical administration, should be adopted if found practical, as many of them doubtless will be.

The primary election law, to which liberal space is given in the message, is an issue of such recent date that conservative people throughout the state will take time to digest it, before expressing opinions. Governor La Follette has given the question much thought and is thoroughly satisfied that the time is ripe in Wisconsin for the test of such a measure. He advances many arguments in its favor and answers very plausibly several objections that are urged against the proposed law. The legislature will soon have a draft of the proposed measure before them, when they will be able to give it intelligent attention. One of the objections not mentioned in the governor's message was advanced by M. G. Jeffris in a discussion at the Twilight Club not long since. Jeffris said that the state of Wisconsin would always be governed by one or the other of the two great parties. That the life and success of the party depended largely upon its organization. That while the theory of independence for the individual voter, was plausible, like many other theories, that in practice it meant party disintegration and demoralization. That while the new law contemplated purity and the overthrow of what is popularly styled "the machine," that in force it would mean a machine of such magnitude that the man with the best literary bureau and best organization behind him, would invariably win on a minority ballot. That while such a law might be good for the cities, that in the country districts the vote would be aimless and scattering.

Governor La Follette is the recognized champion of this new law, which is along the line of reform. He presents it with a clearness and earnestness that will convince the reader of his sincerity and honesty of purpose. It remains for the legislature to decide, after hearing arguments for or against the measure, and the governor as well as the people, will be satisfied with their verdict.

The message is strong and vigorous throughout, and the people of the state, regardless of party, will recognize the fact that Wisconsin has a governor that will honor the state. The Gazette expresses popular sentiment in saying, success to Governor La Follette's administration.

MARK TWAIN'S DAUGHTER.

Miss Clara Clemens Has Just Appeared in Public.

That all the talent in the family of Samuel L. Clemens, the well beloved Mark Twain, is not possessed by his head is amply evidenced by the recent appearance as a concert singer of his daughter, Miss Clara Clemens. Miss Clemens possesses a rich mezzo soprano voice of rare quality, and this, in connection with her

MISS CLARA CLEMENS, undoubtedly beauty, will serve to gain her the success which she has deserved by years of hard work and study. She does not intend, she says, to make use of her father's name at all, for she believes that she can win success solely on her merits. The daughter of the humorist has a full share of the pluck and determination that distinguish her sire.

Mark Twain's family have lived abroad for a number of years. It was early discovered that Miss Clara had a decided talent for music, and no expense was spared to develop it. She became a thorough musician, becoming especially skillful as a pianist. While studying music she learned that her voice had exceptional sweetness and power, and she decided to train it under the best instructors. Her first instruction was received from Marianna Brandt, one of the best of Europe's voice trainers, and she then placed herself under the still more famous Mme. Marchesi. In addition to her musical knowledge, Miss Clemens has acquired a number of languages and is able to sing most of her songs in the languages in which they were originally written.

Mark Twain has only two living children, both daughters. Another daughter, to whom he was peculiarly devoted, died recently, and the loss was a great shock to the author. His wife, who is still living, was a Miss Langdon. Mr. Clemens met her on shipboard. Their home is at Hartford.

Great Strength of Camel.

A camel possesses twice the carrying power of an ox. With an ordinary load of four hundred pounds he can travel twelve or fourteen miles a day without water, going forty miles a day. Camels are fit to work at five years old, but their strength begins to decline at twenty-five, although they usually live to forty.

Saratoga Men Are Sensitive.

A Chicagoan just returned from a trip east says that the easiest way to anger a Saratoga man is to drink a water that is not produced there. No resident of Saratoga, it is said, ever thinks of drinking the spring waters, but he takes it as an insult if a visitor does not and regards as an enemy the person who has the temerity to order and pay for an imported water.

BABCOCK MEDAL IS READY TO DELIVER

WILL BE PRESENTED BY GOV.
LA FOLLETTE IN FEBRUARY

Design Selected Was One of Eleven
Submitted by Different Firms—It is of Bronze, and Cost About Three Hundred Dollars—Medal Chosen is a Thing of Beauty.

The medal to be presented to Prof. Stephen Moulton Babcock by the State of Wisconsin, in recognition of his unselfish dedication to the people of this state and to the world, his inventions and discoveries, has arrived and will be presented to him in the assembly chamber at Madison some time between Feb. 10th and 15th, the exact date not yet having been fixed.

Governor La Follette will preside and short addresses will be made by several eminent men.

The resolution awarding this medal to Prof. Babcock was passed by the legislature of 1899, and a committee composed of Ogden H. Fethers, John W. Whelan and John M. True, was appointed to secure an appropriate design and purchase the medal.

The committee sent out circulars to all the great firms of the world who make a business of manufacturing medals and received answers and designs from eleven firms.

The specifications for the medal were that it should be of bronze and to cost not to exceed $300. It should include by means of appropriate symbols some representation of the state of Wisconsin—the University of Wisconsin, the Agricultural or Dairy industry. The reverse side of the medal to have a laurel wreath, inclosing this inscription:

"Recognizing the great value to the people of this state and to the whole world, of the inventions and discoveries of Prof. Stephen Moulton Babcock, of the University of Wisconsin, and of his unselfish dedication of these inventions to the public service, the state of Wisconsin presents to Prof. Babcock this medal."

The eleven competitors for this medal were scattered over America and Europe. After a careful study of the designs offered, the contract was awarded to Spink & Son, of London, England. They are the makers of all the great seals for the British government and are considered to be the foremost medal makers of the world. Spink & Son claim that this is the largest struck medal ever made and the amount of pressure necessary to force the metal into the dies was enormous.

The medal has arrived and has been accepted by the committee. It is of great beauty. Photographs will be made and given to the press in ample time for half tones to be published at the time of the public ceremonies.

Ogden H. Fethers, chairman of the committee, stated that the committee were highly pleased with the medal and consider it one of the finest ever brought to this country.

OVER FIFTY YEARS WITH ST. PAUL ROAD

John C. Fox, General Car and Locomotive Foreman, Long in Continuous Service.

In October last John C. Fox of this city, general car and locomotive foreman for this district of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. R., entered upon his fiftieth year of continuous service in the employ of the company.

Mr. Fox started in when a young man in the motive department and has steadily mounted to the top of the ladder. He is one of the employees of the road that could always be relied upon in time of need. He was a locomotive engineer running out of this city for a great many years and established a record during that time for regularity and carefulness that put him at the top of the list of faithful employees of the road.

Mr. Fox is known from one end of the St. Paul system to the other by the men in charge of the motive power of the road, and all have a good word and a soft spot in their hearts for "Johnnie Fox."

Fifty years ago the seventeenth of January when he first entered the employ of the railroad company. Mr. Fox was married and on the seventeenth of this month the fiftieth anniversary of that event will be celebrated at his home in this city. He is a man much opposed to any display and the fiftieth anniversary of his wedding will be celebrated in a quiet unostentatious manner. Only the members of his family and a few of his most intimate friends will be present. Mr. Fox and his good wife have the congratulations of the entire community in which he has spent the greater portion of his life.

Ice Harvest Will Begin Soon.

The City Ice Co. is engaged in scraping the ice above the railroad bridge preparatory to cutting. It is now about ten inches thick and a few days and nights of sharp cold weather would put it in prime condition. Twelve to fourteen inches is about the right thickness. When the ice cutting harvest begins employment will be furnished to fifty men for three or four weeks. Two to three ice houses, just above the bridge, have a capacity of four thousand tons each.

The Browning club, the meeting of which has been interrupted for a couple of weeks, will meet on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the Congregational church. The poem to be discussed is an epistle. Anyone interested is invited.

The Nona Such Cinch club were entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Gage, at their home, 209 North Bluff street. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing cinch. Miss Ida Wood secured the first prize and James Earle the consolation prize. Refreshments were served later in the evening, and enjoyed by all.

A jolly party of young folks gathered last evening at the home of Miss Catharine M. Pickett, on Rager avenue. The evening was spent in games of various kinds and enjoyed by all. The guessing contest produced the most fun, and the first prize was won by Miss Jessie Bench and the booby by Carl Diehl. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Musical circles are looking forward with interest to the concert on Tuesday evening next. The concert is by the Ottumwa Male Quartette, assisted by Miss Addie Chase Smith. Geo. H. Gott, who for so many years was the life of the old Schuberts, is leader of the Ottumwa this year, and this adds much to their power. The Quartette was here two or three years ago, and gave one of the best concerts ever listened to here. Large bananas, 15 cents. Stevens.

THE EQUIPMENT BEING INCREASED

The Manual Training Department at the High School Getting in New Machinery.

The manual training department at the high school is now receiving and setting up for use new machinery which was ordered during the Christmas vacation. Already a new twelve foot lathe has been received, the latest improved band saw and attachments for fret work and grill work, dado machine and planer and special hand tools. New benches are also being added.

Sixty of the high school boys are taking this course which is graded into freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior years like the other courses. The first year is devoted to bench work, the second to lathe work, the third to forge work in iron and the fourth to steel work in making tools. The department occupies three rooms—one for drafting, one for woodwork and one for iron work. The freshmen and sophomores are now working on special designs in small furniture. The making of the designs is within the scope of the instruction to be had here.

It is a matter of some pride to the seniors, that is, those working in steel, that their relation to their tools is the ultimate relation of the creator to his creation. There is not a tool to be had but what has been made on the spot by the pupils. Of course this has been done under the supervision of Mr. Brace, the manual training instructor, but he has abstained from actual participation in the work. There is no polishing machine in the equipment, but aside from the metriculous charm of smooth finish and high polish the tools can stand comparison with those of any machine shop in the country.

After the original expense of equipping with suitable machinery the outlay is practically nil. In this connection it may be added that fifty easels and drawing boards for the new art room are now being made in the carpenter shop and that the tables for the cooking rooms were constructed in the same place.

Supt. Converse of Beloit inspected the department within a few days and was greatly impressed with a tool for cutting steel which has been in constant service since last September has still a cutting edge fine enough to sharpen a lead pencil. This adequate evidence of the skill in the tempering. The Beloit school board is planning an early visit to inspect our public school manual training system and expects next year to add such a department to its curriculum.

MADE APPLICATION FOR A JURY TRIAL

Mrs. Florence V. Shattuck has made application to the county court for a jury trial to determine her sanity. A jury was secured and the case then adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Shattuck was examined by a commission composed of Drs. Sutherland and Chittenden, appointed by Judge Sale a short time ago, and pronounced to be insane. Mrs. Shattuck has taken an appeal from this decision and demanded a jury trial which was granted.

Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck came here from Clinton and her husband was at one time in the grocery business in the First ward.

She secured a divorce from her husband, Edward A. Shattuck, in the circuit court in October and since that time her actions have led her relatives to believe that she was not in her right mind and it was on their application that she was examined by the commission.

TO HOLD ROUSING MEETING FOR MEN

A rousing men's meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

Every man in the city is invited to be present at this time and enjoy an hour with the men. Several well-known speakers will be present at this time and give short practical talks on the different phases of the subject "The influence of one man upon another."

The singing is to be made one of the special features of these meetings and all are urged to attend and bring a friend with them to enjoy this hour which will be a great benefit to all who come.

The Century Great Clearing Sale.

To make room for our new spring goods we will put on sale Monday morning all trimmed hats at prices far below the actual cost and all ready to wear hats that sold for $1.50 and $1.25 at 50 cents each. A nice line of ladies' muslin underwear, infants' coats, dresses, skirts, etc.; a line of fancy plushes, silk fringes, cords, yarns, zephyrs, hosiery, jewelry, fine handkerchiefs, stamped linens, linen flosses, mittens, pocket books, side-combs, back-combs. Everything goes at less than cost to make room in my over-crowded store for spring goods. It will be to the advantage of every lady to call and examine my stock and prices. Mrs. M. E. Woodstock.

Nearly everyone is more or less interested in good advertising, hence we desire to call our readers' attention to the striking series of advertisements of Dr. Dalton's Marvelous Catarrh Remedy, now running in this paper. It takes good advertising now-a-days, to sell any article, and—back of the good advertising—a good article. These ads are among the best that we have seen, and that a good article is back of them seems to be fairly well demonstrated by the immense sales which Dr. Dalton's Marvelous Catarrh Remedy is meeting with, both in this city and other localities throughout the United States. Wholesale druggists say that they are frequently unable to supply the demand among their customers, the retailers.

Record Breaking Run.

The Blodgett Milling company of this city have made a record breaking run during the year just passed. From July until January they run the mill continuously by night and day and during that time have turned out about 100,000 barrels of rye and buckwheat flour. This company has one of the largest mills in the United States devoted exclusively to the manufacture of rye and buckwheat flour.

Art Study Class.

Mrs. W. F. Bosworth's Art Study class met this afternoon in Dr. Crow's office in the Hayes block. The topic was Early Christian Architecture; and the transition from the pagan basilica to the Christian church. The chapels, baptisteries, cloisters and other monastic buildings associated with the Collegiate church, received detailed attention. The Byzantine type of architecture will be considered at the next session.

DIRECTORS OF THE OAK HILL CEMETERY

Annual Meeting Held Last Evening—Three New Directors Elected—Will Add Waiting Room.

The stock holders of the Oak Hill cemetery association held their annual meeting last evening at the office of Dr. Wm. H. Judd and business of importance was transacted. Three new directors were elected as follows: James A. Fathers, Volney Atwood and Mrs. Chester Crosby. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Denison, the retiring directors.

It was decided that the money on hand and the money invested in mortgages over and above the bequest fund be used to improve the grounds.

A waiting room will also be erected during the coming season for the convenience of people coming and going.

A report on the number of interments in the cemetery during the year just closed was made. There were 151 burials, 105 coming from the city of Janesville, 11 from Rock county outside of the city, and 8 from Wisconsin outside of Rock county. There were also interred 24 bodies from states other than Wisconsin.

The financial report of the association showed $6,574.67 receipts and $2,884.06 expended.

The amount of the bequest fund is $2,370 and the association holds in mortgages $3,525.00.

The meeting of the trustees of the association was held and the election of the following officers for the ensuing year took place: Volney Atwood, president; S. C. Burnham, treasurer and W. F. Carle, secretary. The above officers together with W. T. Vankirk and W. H. Judd constitute the executive board.

NEW THREE-STORY BRICK WAREHOUSE

The Bicknell Hardware Co. Lease Property on the Corner of Academy and Wall Streets.

The Bicknell Hardware company have secured a long lease of the property at the corner of Academy and Wall streets and will soon erect a large three-story brick warehouse to be used for their agricultural implement business. The Bicknell Hardware company are now located at the corner of Milwaukee and Marion streets. Since locating in this city their business has increased so rapidly that they have been forced to seek more commodious quarters.

The new building will give them the much-needed space and will be a great improvement to that portion of the city.

The site selected by them is well adapted for an enterprise of this kind, being located near both of the railroad freight houses with good streets on both sides and the street railway running by the front door.

SENATORS TALK OF THE ARMY.

Attack Upon President's Discretionary Power.

QUESTION OF ARMED MENACE.

Mr. Hoar Thought 100,000 Armed Men Would be Within the Limit of Domestic Safety to Liberty—Reapportionment Bill Passes.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—In the senate a vigorous attack was made upon that portion of the army reorganization bill which confers upon the president discretionary power to increase the strength of the army to the maximum limit fixed by the bill. Mr. Bacon (Ga.) began the attack and Mr. Pratt (Conn.), replying, maintained that discretionary power ought to be conferred upon the president, and expressed astonishment that anybody should entertain a fear that the power ever would be abused. Mr. Bacon declared he would rather see his party condemned to universal and never-ending banishment from political power than to see such authority placed in the hands of the president. Mr. Hoar expressed the opinion that an army of 100,000 at present would not make the executive more formidable than he was made by an army of 25,000 when that limit was fixed. He did not regard an army of 100,000 as a menace, as that number, in his judgment, was far within the limit of domestic safety to liberty. The bill in addition authorized the president to reduce the number of the army still lower, but on account of the use to be made of that army he would have to vote against the bill. Senator Hoar's resolution providing that the United States army should only be used to keep order in places now actually under the peaceful control of this government was voted down, 32 to 19. The division was strictly along party lines, with the exception that Senator Morgan (Ala.) voted with the republicans and Senator Hale (Me.) and Senator Hoar (Mass.) voted with the democrats. The consideration of the army reorganization bill is proceeding slowly, and a vote on its passage may not be reached for several days.

Passes Reapportionment Bill.
The senate passed the reapportionment bill as it came from the house. The bill now goes to the president for his signature.

The president has nominated William G. Wheeler of Wisconsin to be attorney general of the United States for the western district of Wisconsin.

Heavy Imports by Manufacturers.
The manufacturers of the country have imported more raw material for use in manufacturing in the year 1900 than in any preceding year in the history of our import trade. The total material of foreign production imported in a crude condition during the year just ended amounts to over $275,000,000, and if this is added to the total of "articles wholly or partially manufactured for use as materials in manufacturing" the grand total of materials imported would amount to over $360,000,000, or nearly 45 per cent of the total importations.

Breaks Record Over $4,000,000.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—George E. Roberts, director of the mint, in his annual report shows that the coinage of the last year was in excess of that executed in any previous year in the history of the service, aggregating $141,351,960, as compared with $136,855,576 in the previous fiscal year. The value of the gold coinage was slightly below that of the previous year, being $107,937,110, as compared with $108,177,180. The coinage of silver dollars was $18,244,984, as compared with $18,254,709 in the previous year. The chief increase was in the output of subsidiary and minor coins, which surpassed all records. The coinage of subsidiary silver amounted to $7,114,270 pieces, of the value of $12,876,849, and of minor coins to the extraordinary total of 101,201,753 pieces, of the value of $2,243,017.

Cleveland Back from Hunt.
Charleston, S. C., Jan. 12.—Former President Cleveland, Captain Robley D. Evans, Captain P. B. Lamberton, and General Anson G. McCook came up from the Santee Gun club preserves to Georgetown to-day, and, boarding their private car Iolanthe, left at 4 p. m. for their homes. Mr. Cleveland looked ruddy and in excellent health. The marshes are full of ducks, and the party had fine sport.

Kruger Is Seriously Ill.
Paris, Jan. 12.—Private advices received here say that a German physician who recently examined President Kruger pronounced him dangerously ill, scarcely likely to live more than a fortnight longer. Coal Vein Found in Michigan.

St. Joseph, Mich., Jan. 12.—The citizens of the village of Eau Claire, 15 miles east of this city, are in a fever of excitement over the discovery of a rich coal vein on the William Denn farm, three miles west of the corporation limits. Several prospectors from the coal regions of Pennsylvania, who have been examining the ground in this vicinity, have expressed their opinion that not only the territory where the Denn vein has been found is rich with coal, but the entire Eau Claire district contains large quantities of coal.

Russia to Act Fairly.

Pekin, Jan. 12.—M. DeGiers, the Russian minister to China, denies the current report that Russia is endeavoring to make a special agreement with China irrespective of the other powers. "Had this been the case," he said today, "I would not have signed the joint note, although probably, so far as Manchuria is concerned, Russia and China will make special arrangements which will not conflict with any treaties or agreements made by Russia and the other joint powers. I do not believe that Russia has any intention of keeping Manchuria. Indeed, she is placing all the Chinese possible in office. Probably, however, it will be necessary to guard the railroad for an indefinite period. I do not believe that there are 250,000 Russian soldiers in Manchuria."

ARE RESCUED BY HEROES.

Passengers and Crew of Steamer Russie Saved.

WORK OF BOLD FISHERMEN.

Wrecked Vessel Is Reached After Repeated Attempts—Women First to Be Land—Collapse from Fatigue and Hunger—Scenes of Joy.

Faraman, Bouches du Rhone, Jan. 12.—After a night of terrible suspense all the passengers and crew of the French steamer Russie, from Oran, Algeria, which stranded near here during a violent storm Monday, have been safely landed.

As the life line connected from the shore with the steamer parted again yesterday afternoon, when night set in no communication with the stranded steamer was possible. The last signaled message read as follows: "We have not a scrap of food left. Consternation prevails on board."

On receipt of this appeal the fishermen made two more plucky launches of their boat, but were beaten back, and as the Russie disappeared in the darkness those on board apparently were trying to launch their only remaining boat.

The storm raged with renewed fury during the night, and only those who were compelled to do so stayed on the shore, part of them huddled beneath a tarpaulin and others seeking refuge from the gale in the Faraman lighthouse.

At midnight two floats with lines attached to them were launched, but both attempts to reach the Russie were fruitless.

Carro Fishermen Succeed.

In the early hours of the morning torches were lighted at the bow of the Russie, and in response to the signal the fishermen made another effort to reach the wreck. But they were again tossed ashore, and the crew of the lifeboat, who belong to the fishing village of Carro, gathered around a bonfire made of wreckage from the steamer, drenched to the skin, and with teeth chattering from cold, but not discouraged. Their heroism finally was rewarded, as, with daybreak, the weather perceptibly moderated, the sea became calmer and the wind having shifted from east to north, the Carro fishermen at about 4:30 a. m. again put to sea. The spectators watched with fast-beating hearts as the boat disappeared through the waves. More than once it was thought she was engulfed, but the small craft rose in sight again on the crests of the waves, approaching gradually nearer to the Russie.

Then a rope was thrown, which the fishermen caught, and the lifeboat soon afterward was alongside. Then, above the howling wind, rose cries of joy from those on board the Russie, which were re-echoed by the crowd ashore. Another boat, manned by four men, was then launched and succeeded in reaching the wrecked vessel.

Women Land First.

A few minutes later the Carro boat left the Russie's side, heavily laden. As she approached the shore the occupants were seen to be women and one baby. The enthusiasm was delirious. The spectators plunged into the sea. Some of them dragged the lifeboat ashore and others lifted the women out of the boat and carried them in their arms, through the waves to dry land. One woman was clasped in the arms of her son, who had been waiting on shore since Monday. She swooned and had to be transported on a stretcher, hastily constructed and covered with blankets, to the lighthouse. The other women collapsed from fatigue, cold and hunger. Their haggard faces and trembling limbs told of the awful experience they had gone through.

It was unfortunate that want of foresight resulted in all the nourishment being kept at the lighthouse, two miles distant, for the sufferers had to walk there, assisted by their friends, before restoratives could be administered to them.

The four-oared boat next arrived with seven more passengers, and the lifeboats then made repeated journeys until all were saved and sheltered in the lighthouse.

Murdered in Manila.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 12.—News was received by the steamer Empress of Japan that on Dec. 6 Mrs. William Holst of Port Blakeley, Wash., was found in a Manila hotel murdered. Her husband was arrested. Both were among the crew of the bark Topgalant, which sailed from Hongkong Nov. 9 for Port Blakeley and was almost wrecked by a typhoon and driven to Manila, where her crew refused to go to sea in her.

Trying to Nab Pat Crowe.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 12.—Two mysterious individuals, said by the Vancouver police to be Pinkerton detectives, have been in the city for the last few days. Their mission is said to be to arrest Pat Crowe, the alleged abductor of young Edward Cudahy of Omaha. Crowe is expected by these detectives to attempt to sail for Australia on the Mowera.

Amusing juxtaposition of Machines.

At the New York automobile show there was an amusing juxtaposition of three machines on the main floor. Ranged in a row there was a big truck bearing the word "Champagne" in large lettering, and the brand next to it was an ambulance and next to it a patrol wagon.

Sunday School Teachers' Salaries.

The pastor of an eastern church stated recently that certain teachers in his Sunday school were paid for their services. According to the pastor for the prime requisite of a capable teacher is the ability to tell stories. This is the form in which moral lessons can best be conveyed. And good story tellers, he concludes, are always worthy of their hire.

English Sympathizer Rewarded.

The Rev. James Gray, formerly Presbyterian minister in Pretoria, has been appointed by Lord Roberts acting librarian of the library there. The reverend gentleman a few weeks before the outbreak of hostilities publicly denounced Krugerism from his pulpit, and had to flee to Durban in consequence.

DANDELIONS.

Oh, mute, wild prophets, what of life know ye,
Of eager breath?
Even as I pray, ye melt your living gold
And, gray and hopeless on the morning breeze,
Drop into death.

Oh, wayworn brethren, what of earth know ye,
What end of strife?
Lo, as I grieve, ye bound from chilling sleep,
Breaking the framework of the somber globe
With beaming life!

—Philip Perry in Liepincott's.

THE OUTWITTING OF SORROWFUL JIM.

Allyn rode across the prairie joyously and looked longingly toward the east, where the sun was scarce an hour high. The fresh, bracing air seemed to permeate every fiber of his being, and he drew in great breaths of it, feeling a wild sort of pleasure in the mere fact of being alive.

For once in three years he was happy, and he had been in that beautiful state for two whole days. The rest of the cowboys of the outfit did not know what to make of it. Cynose like swore he had been "laced," for Allyn had been nicknamed by the camp Sorrowful Jim, and to see him boyishly exuberant and in a gay humor was an unheard of thing until the last day or so.

Allyn had once made the mistake of considering life a very serious matter indeed, and then, after trying for a year to practice law and not getting any one to practice upon he had given it up in disgust and migrated to the home of opportunity in hope of getting rich.

During his idle hours Allyn had fallen in love, and he took that very seriously also. It went hard with him, for he had nothing on earth except a few bonds an old aunt had left him, and the revenue from them did not amount to $300 a year. At the rate his practice was not increasing, Methusalem would have been a youngster compared with Allyn if he waited for the revenue from his profession to enable him to marry.

"Jim," she said, "you are acting very foolishly. What does it matter if you haven't any money? I don't want money. I've got enough, or will have when I am 24, when I get control of it. That would keep us very nicely and would hold us up until you could establish a paying practice. Now don't be silly."

"Nelly," he said solemnly, "I cannot afford to marry now. People would say that I married you for your money, and I don't intend to put myself in a position where such a motive could be imputed to me. It would be unjust to me and to you."

"Well, Jim," and there were tears in her voice, "don't think you are acting fairly toward me. Here I am an orphan, with nobody on the earth to love except an old guardian, and I despise him. You've made me love you so that life without you will be worse than no life at all, and now you say you cannot marry me until you make what it took my father a lifetime to accumulate. Why, by that time I'll have wrinkles and maybe false teeth and glasses and be a horrid, snuffy, fussy old woman."

"No, Nelly, I don't want to make $200,000. If I had $100,000 it would be all right. And it will not take long. Our west I will make it quickly. Just you stand fast and wait for me."

"Oh, I'll wait, but I think you are hateful and pickled just the same. Would you marry me if I hadn't any money at all?"

"Yes, gladly, and we would be happy too. You would manage somehow. But now my self respect will not allow me."

So it was that he went to make his fortune and at the same time peace with his unduly active conscience. To his utter disgust he found, after a year's prospecting, that gold mines were not at all plentiful, and that every foot of the mountains had been prospected over time and again. A year in Mexico assured him that the Baby's Birth.

How many a woman dates a life of chronic invalidism from baby's birth. She tries "different doctors and different medicines" with little benefit. Then, fortunately her attention is called to the remarkable cures resulting from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and she gives the medicine a trial.

Her experience is that of ninety-eight women out of every hundred who use "Favorite Prescription" for womanly ills—she is cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is peculiarly a mother's medicine. Its use before maternity makes the baby's advent practically painless. It gives the mother strength to nurse her child. It cures diseases peculiar to women and cures them permanently.

There is no alcohol, opium, cocaine or any other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription." It is purely a vegetable preparation and cannot disagree with the weakest constitution.

Mrs. Emerson Allen, of Dorset, Ontario, Can., writes: "I can truly say that I think Dr. Pierce's medicine the best I have ever used. I was in very poor health for a long time, dating from the birth of my little girl. I tried different doctors and different medicines. I derived very much more benefit from your medicine than from any other I have ever used. I took four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I always keep the 'Pelets' in the house."

business of finding silver mines trying around loose had also played out long ago, and that it took lots of capital to start ranching on a paying basis. Funds were getting low, so he secured a place as one of the herdsmen of the XXX outfit and on account of his grave demeanor was promptly named by the other cowpunchers Sorrowful Jim. And the name stuck to him.

During all his wanderings he had written to Nell as regularly as possible and had begun to regret in a measure his Puritanical conscience. At $40 a month and grub he did not see that a fortune was in immediate prospect. Absence had indeed made his heart grow fonder, and he longed for a sight of Nell's laughing eyes and dimpled face.

Yet he would not acknowledge himself beaten or that he would give in. Much against his inclination he remained consumed with a desire to see her, yet impelled to remain in stiff-necked pride, acting as avant courier and escort for a lot of wild-eyed, long-horned steers, all the while cursing himself for a fool. So he and the rest of the outfit did not have very much in common together, and he grew more and more unlovable and lonely.

Small wonder was it, then, that when he received a letter from her he felt that his voluntary exile was broken. His penance was done, and he was free to return to civilization and Nelly.

"You come on, Jim, dear," the letter said—"that is, of course, if you care to take an almost dowdierless bride. I have now only enough left to bring me in $300 a year—exactly what you had. I do not own another thing on earth. I had concluded that the money without you is not worth having, and as long as you are so stubborn about it I say that I must give in, so I have done so gladly. I have got to be 24, as you know, and have absolute control over my property. So, in order to get you, I have given away my fortune."

"You have cost me nearly $100,000, so I'm of the opinion that you had better come on and deliver yourself up as a victim. I don't propose to tell you another thing about it, as you have no right to know now. After—after—oh, well, some time I will tell you what I did with the rest of the money, but just now it is no affair of yours. You will simply have to take my word for it. Come on, Jim. I am anxious to see you."

So it was that Jim was so happy. He had but two more days to wait; then he would get his month's wages. He had $300 saved up, and he reflected that he and Nelly would manage to get along nicely on that for awhile. His pride was riding rampant, also, and his conscience was very self-satisfied, indeed, for he had not held out against the allurements of beauty, wealth, position, ease—everything; it was a victory well worth rejoicing over.

The ceremony was over, the few intimate friends had taken their departure, and Jim and Nell looked at each other in a bewildered sort of way.

"I think we ought to take a trip, Jim. I'm so dead tired of this place. I don't know what to do. Let's go to Europe. I've always wanted to go there."

"Nelly, are you daft? I can't afford a trip to Europe, and you know it. And you haven't any money either, so how are we to go?"

"I think it is very unkind of a person of your wealth to be taunting me with my poverty. For a man as rich as you, I think you are undoubtedly 'close.' Her eyes twinkled merrily. 'I want to go to Europe, and now I've got you to go with me you ought to be glad of the opportunity.'

"Nelly, dear, if I could afford it you know I would be delighted to take you."

"Well, you can afford it."

"I tell you I cannot."

"I know better—you can. Why, just look at these," and she handed him a bundle of books and papers. He picked up the first one and read the inside page: "First National Bank, in account with James M. Allyn. Deposited May 1, $35,000; May 9, $12,000; May 12, $12,000."

"What does this mean, Nelly?" he asked wonderingly as he looked at another book and read: "Received May 9, bonds, mortgages, stocks and securities duly transferred and assigned to James M. Allyn, and aggregating $130,000, and more particularly described as follows: The Trust and Safe Deposit company." Nell was hugely enjoying the situation. She seated herself on the arm of the chair and said: "You dear old stupid, mulish, stubborn thing, I told you the truth, for I gave everything I owed to you before I wrote that letter. I told the truth, for I reserved just enough to bring me in $300 a year."

"Well, I'll be— She kissed him and stopped the word.

"Are you going to Europe?" she asked.

"Yes. I think I would enjoy the trip myself, but don't you think you paid too much for me?"

"Oh, I don't know. Not as long as you are nice as you are now. Come on. Let's get ready and catch the steamer leaving tomorrow evening."—St. Louis Star.

An Irishman's Ruin.

In the pioneer days of Victoria, B. C., a Hibernian dryman, whose property abounded on to that of a merchant, was very much disgusted to find that the merchant's chickens were constantly in his little garden patch and would root up his flowers and vegetables.

Appalls to the merchant, who was a patron of the dryman, were of no avail, so the following ruse was adopted:

Our friend from the Emerald Isle purchased some eggs and placed them here and there in his garden. He then awaited the merchant's wife, who would call the chickens to feed them, and in full view of the lady picked up the eggs and put them in his hat.

The lady asked Mike what he was doing.

"Oh, getting a few eggs for my breakfast," said he.

"Well," said the lady, "you have no chickens. The eggs are mine."

"Oh, sure are they, mum. Then what do they do in my garden? Anything on my premises is my own."

After this the force was made chicken proof, and Mike had no more trouble.—London Tit-Bits.

A Story of Dumas.

One day Alexandre Dumas visited Marseilles and made a trip to the Chateau d'If to visit the palace he had helped to make famous. The guide showed him everything; also the subterranean passage by which Edmond Dantes and Abbe Faria used to visit each other. "This passage was dug by Abbe Faria by the aid of a fish bone," the guide explained. "M. Dumas tells about it in his story of 'Monte-Christo.'"

"Indeed," replied the author. "Alexandre Dumas must be familiar with all the surroundings here. Perhaps you know him?"

"I should think so. He is one of my best friends."

"And you are one of his," replied the impulsive scribbler, letting 2 louis d'or slip into the hand of the astonished guide.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles."

AN ORDINANCE

relating to the installation and maintenance of metallic return circuits for conveying electric power for motive power for railroads and street railways.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. Every person, firm or corporation, operating, owning or controlling a railroad or street R. R. within the city of Janesville, upon which cars are now, or hereafter shall be operated or propelled by electricity, shall be installed with a grounded return circuit for conveying the electricity, shall install and maintain a metallic return circuit of such cross section and conductivity for conveying the electricity so used as a motive power that the maximum difference of potential will not at any time exceed one volt between any part of such metallic return circuit and any water pipes, gas pipes, telephone or telegraph cables or other metal not installed for the purpose of forming a part of such metallic return circuit, and that there will not be a variation in difference of potential exceeding one half volt between any two measurements at the same time at points along and upon said metallic return circuit within a distance of three hundred feet or less from each other. Such metallic return circuit shall be installed and maintained in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance of the city of Janesville, now or hereafter in force.

Sec. 11. Such metallic return circuit shall be installed and in use on or before the first day of July 1901.

Sec. 12. Any person, firm or corporation violating the terms of this ordinance, or who fails, neglects, or refuses to comply therewith shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars; and such person, firm or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a separate and distinct offense for every day during which such person, firm or corporation violates, fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any or all of the requirements of this ordinance.

Sec. 13. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, publication shall be for three successive days.

Passed July, 7th, 1901.

Approved,
VICTOR P. RICHARDSON, Mayor.

POSTOFFICE SAFE BLOWN.

Burglars at Franklin, Ind., Fail to Obtain Any Plunder.

Franklin, Ind., Jan. 12.—About one o'clock robbers entered the postoffice here and blew the safe. All the sections were entered save three. In one of these were the keys to the entire safe, along with $75 belonging to Deputy John Hunter and in another was $35 belonging to Mail Carrier Frank Hunt. In the center of the safe is a burglar proof vault, in which Postmaster Prichard kept the office contents. This was too much for the robbers, as they did not touch it. There seems to have been at least three of the party, as one is said to have been on guard and voices were heard inside. The safe was nearly ruined. The tools used were stolen from a local blacksmith shop. No arrests have been made yet.

Daring Boer Raids.

Pretoria, Jan. 12.—The Boers have been making some daring raids in attempts to seize cattle near the British outposts along the eastern line. Generals Babington and Gordon are having skirmishes daily with the Boers south of the Magaliesberg. These are believed to number about 3,000. Commander-in-Chief Botha is reported to be organizing a series of attacks in the east, of which those at Belfast and other places on Monday night and Tuesday morning were the beginning.

President Is Much Better.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—The president continues to improve. Nothing in his case at all unfavorable has so far appeared. He sat up in bed for a short time during the day.

Secretary Hay continues to improve and if it had not been for the inclement weather today he would have returned to the state department. It was deemed better, however, that he remain indoors a little longer, although he has practically recovered from his recent attack.

Sale Likely to Go Through.

Copenhagen, Jan. 12.—The negotiations for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States are seemingly approaching a settlement. The matter has been placed in the hands of the finance committee of the rigsdag, with the view of arranging the difference in the price asked and offered. The king and ministry are in favor of the sale, but final action may be delayed by powerful opposition, both in the islands and here.

College Girls in Class Rush.

Delaware, O., Jan. 12.—Two hundred girls participated in a class rush at Ohio Wesleyan University to-day. The trouble was precipitated by a junior girl wearing a senior cap and gown in chapel. A lively struggle between rival class girls for possession of the cap and gown ensued, but was soon stopped by President Bashford and members of the faculty, who rushed from the platform and secured the battered cap and torn gown.

Three Trainmen Are Killed.

Detroit, Jan. 12.—In a collision between an east-bound passenger train and a freight engine, on the Pere Marquette railroad at Plymouth, forty miles northeast of here last night, Engineer Alexander Moore and Fireman John C. Kennedy of the passenger train were killed. Fireman William Blische of the freight was so badly injured that he died shortly after being brought to St. Mary's hospital here. Express Messenger Warner was seriously injured.

To Poison Prairie Dogs.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 12.—A bill is before the legislature carrying an appropriation of $10,000 with which to purchase poison to exterminate prairie dogs in Western Kansas. Representative Cone of Haskell county is pushing the measure and says the prairie dogs are destroying thousands of acres of range in that region. Prairie-dog wardens are to be appointed for each township, to scatter the poison in the prairie-dog towns.

Texas Oil Discovery.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 12.—Great excitement prevails in Southeast Texas near the Louisiana line over the discovery of oil. A stream of oil six inches in diameter, shooting over 100 feet into the air and with a flow of 5,000 barrels a day, is the result of sinking a well by a Washington capitalist, who was convinced that there was oil in the vicinity and has been operating there for some months. The well is 1,300 feet deep.

Minister Wu on Foreigners.

Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister in Washington, addressed the National Academy of Political and Social Science in Philadelphia recently, his subject being "The Causes of the Unpopularity of Foreigners in China."

Pan-American Special Stamp.

It is said that the 4-cent stamp in the new series to be issued and sold during the next year in commemoration of the pan-American exposition at Buffalo will have as its central picture a motor vehicle, representing the latest form of transportation.

Oil Keeps Down Road-Dust.

The practice of oiling roads to keep the dust down was begun in California a few years ago and is extending to several parts of that state. The dry season is so long that the idea of obtaining dustless roads is naturally attractive to Californians and the success that has attended the use of oil for this purpose promises to cause its even more general adoption.
